

Sinclair Broadcasting's intention to air the anti-Kerry documentary is a desperate and outrageous attempt to use their power to manipulate the election. It's an unamerican thing to do, flying in the face of the law. Also, stockholders are being abused -- owning shares makes it look as if they all support this boardroom bully mentality. If they want to show their documentary, they'd better follow with Moore's Fahrenheit 9/11. Otherwise, it's just another Tamany Hall horror show.
